

PRESS RELEASE 02/2015

THE CROCODILE COLLECTION

CONFORTI was founded in 1912 and is the leading Italian company in professional security. Always very responsive to the market demand, CONFORTI looks for innovation and quality excellence also through aesthetics. The result is the luxury brand EXCLUSIVE SAFES, which represents the top quality Italian style.

Created for 100 years of Conforti business activity, the luxury brand EXCLUSIVE SAFES proposes highly prestigious safes. EXCLUSIVE SAFES is the Made in Italy of excellence, for the custody of goods and valuables, addressed to a niche of extremely demanding consumers who in addition to security look for exclusivity in design and for a high symbolic value.

Conforti is a collector of high professionalism whose craft skills, applied to the most advanced technologies, lead to the realization of first class products.

The EXCLUSIVE SAFES are real artworks and highly personalized objects: the wide choice, the infinite range of fine materials, the locking systems and the interiors are finalized to the specific customer's requests. The client becomes the buyer of a masterpiece forged and adapted to its most special needs. Each EXCLUSIVE SAFE is therefore unique and unrepeatable.

The EXCLUSIVE SAFES latest model has a crocodile leather cover with the interior in maple root. The safe is equipped with drawers of various sizes for storing jewelry and valuables, and with nine watch winders for the custody and the automatic loading of mechanical watches.
